

UNLEASH THE BEASTS! MYSTIC CHRONICLES™ LAUNCHES TODAY!

Retro-Style RPG Available Now Via PlayStation Network

Burlingame, CA. - July 16, 2013 - Natsume Inc., a worldwide developer and publisher of family-oriented video games, today releases its highly anticipated PlayStation®Network title, Mystic Chronicles, for both the PlayStation Portable and PlayStation Vita. Developed by KEMCO, this game was a big hit in Japan, and is now ready to roar into North America! With its retro-style graphics, story-driven quests, and unique battle system, Natsume is launching the digital version today for a suggested retail price of $14.99.

"We're very excited to see how the North American audience will enjoy this retro-style RPG," said Hiro Maekawa, President and CEO at Natsume. "With customization, a guild workshop, a unique Guardian Beast system, and a cast of classic characters, Mystic Chronicles is a fantastic title for all fans of the 16-bit RPG era!

Mystic Chronicles follows the story of a mysterious youth, Lux, adopted by a small village. Lux has just begun his training to join the Holos Guild, a society charged with ridding the world of troublemakers. However, a chance meeting with a young girl sets in motion a series of events that sets Lux on a far more serious quest than just defeating ornery forest creatures! Could Lux end up being the savior of the entire world?!
