SHAKE YOUR MONSTERMAKER!
GABRIELLE'S GHOSTLY GROOVE: MONSTER MIX
NOW AVAILABLE ON WIIWARE

Burlingame, CA.--May 16, 2011 – Natsume Inc., a worldwide developer and publisher of family-oriented video games, has announced that Gabrielle's Ghostly Groove: Monster Mix is now available on WiiWare for 500 Wii Points. The groove-a-riffic family-friendly series will also be dancing onto the 3DS system this summer.

There's trouble in Monsterville! Vlad the vampire's loyal zombies have disappeared. Gabrielle and all her monster friends will have to bust some serious moves on the dance floor in order to lure them back. Along the way, maybe they can uncover the identity of the mysterious creature that's terrorizing Monsterville!

"Gabrielle's Ghostly Groove: Monster Mix will have everyone in the room dancing and having a monstrously good time," said Hiro Maekawa, President and CEO of Natsume. "And with the competitive multi-player mode, up to four players can join in on the fun, too!"

Players will join Gabrielle and her monster friends as they dance along to a spooktacular selection of songs. Using the Wii Remote to track their motion, they'll shimmy, shake, and spin in time to the spooktacular tunes! With multiplayer support for up to four players, everyone can get off the couch and terror up the dance floor!
